THE RESURRECTION

Notable Event Is Solemnly Observed at All the Churches.

Easter Sunday was beautifully observed in Alliance at all the churches, and the day on which the crowning event of man's redemption took place was observed in a true Christian manner. At the Catholic church a well-trained choir sang the responses at high mass and other sacred music that stirred the souls of the large gathering, which included people, not only of that faith, but of other denominations. Father Galvin seemed at his best when it came to the sermon, for his words of inspiration were listened to with intense interest.

At the M. E. church the services were also of unusual interest, as was the case at the Episcopal, Presbyterian, Lutheran, Baptist and other churches. Easter morning brought ideal spring weather and the gentler sex adorned in the new finery of the season was out in force, and say it to their credit, were at morning services in a body. But just as the religious exercises were concluded and the throng were on their way home proudly showing the latest fashions in dress and bonnet, a change came over the serene weather. The clouds gathered thick and fast and a copious rain driven by a strong north wind drenched the beautifully attired feminine sex who were not prepared for such a change in the program.

Whether it was a suggestion of the good Providence to remind poor humanity of the frivolous vanity of the material world, or the action of the weather man, we have not been advised. At any rate, either would have been as destructive to the finery of the Easter decorations.

The Fire at Mitchell.

In speaking of the fire at Mitchell, which occurred Wednesday of last week, the Index says: "It is a hard blow to the village of Mitchell and gives our little town a peculiar 'sawed off' appearance that is sad to behold. But it is a harder blow to the Blackburn Brothers whose loss above insurance is several thousand dollars. The building belonged to W. W. Norton and the main part of it was one of the first structures in Mitchell, having been built by Mr. Norton who opened the pioneer store of Mitchell in January or February 1901. The additions were built for the accommodation of Dr. Romine's growing stock in the summer of 1902. The night of the fire the Blackburns had been ordering new dry goods for next winter from Wm. Glasier, representing Handley, Smith & Co., St. Joseph. His trunks and samples valued at $350, were burned. Practically nothing was saved. W. R. Blackburn, the manager, estimates the value of the stock at from $20,000.00 to $22,000.00. The insurance on merchandise was $12,000.00. The building belonged to W. W. Norton, of Alliance. It was worth $3,500.00."

Next Sunday (Low Sunday) during the regular Eucharistic services at the Episcopal church, at 11 o'clock, there will be a benediction of the window recently placed in the church as a memorial of Fay Champion, a former messenger boy in the telegraph service here, and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Marvin. Miss Kriddebaugh will sing the solo, "Beyond the Gates of Paradise," and Mrs. Cruickshank, "Abide With Me." The window is from the Tiffany Art works of New York and is a reproduction of Hoffman's "Christ Child in the temple." The public is invited to attend, and especially railroad and telegraph employees.

The Phelan home in this city will be the scene of a double wedding next Tuesday evening, when Miss Edith Phelan will be married to Mr. Clyde Barker, and immediately following this matrimonial event, Miss Clara Olive Phelan will give her heart and hand in marriage to Mr. C. Edward Marks. The prospective brides are the daughters of John and Adele Phelan and the grooms-to-be are among the popular young men of Alliance. The HERALD extends its congratulations to the young folks and wishes them every blessing in this important step, which means so much to those who take it.

Miss Clara Harding is at Sheridan enjoying a visit with her parents.

A. C. Ross of Box Butte precinct was at the county hub Tuesday on business.

Conductor Willis Kennedy is still suffering with a severe attack of the gripe.

Mrs. D. H. Briggs is enjoying a visit with her mother, Mrs. Tim Higgins of Lakeside.

J. Leggerit returned from Denver Saturday morning, where he has been visiting for several months.

Rev. Father Galvin went to Omaha Sunday night and will be absent the greater part of the week.

Capt. Akers, accompanied by his daughter-in-law Mrs. John Akers in the Upper Platte valley visiting friends.

COMPLETE LANDSLIDE

Dr. Bowman the Choice of Voters by a Large Majority—A Quiet but Active Contest.

COUNCILMEN SURPRISE

S. A. Franklin was Elected to Represent the First Ward and M. O. Joder Caused Surprise by Defeating His Opponent in the Second Ward—No Contest in the School Election.

The city election, which took place last Tuesday, was on the surface a tame affair, but underneath the current of political strife ran rapid. The vote of the successful element especially, shows that an active campaign was in progress and no effort spared to win out. From the hour the polls were opened till the last vote was cast, there was a bustling of voters in all quarters of the town. Dr. Bowman, the reform candidate, was a winner from the start and had a walk-away judging from the returns. Mayor Buechsenstein stood on his official career of the past year and was willing to meet defeat if the people of the city did not agree with his policy. Several intimate friends of the strong-minded mayor suggested that if he would announce a different attitude regarding certain issues he would strengthen his chances for re-election but this he absolutely refused to do, saying he was taught to do what he thought was right even at his mother's knee and he has pursued that course to the best of his knowledge ever since, hence he would not assume a position contrary to his conscientious convictions, though it meant victory. We give the returns of the entire election, which are as follows:

FIRST WARD.

Mayor, Louis Buechsenstein, 75
City Clerk, L. W. Bowman, 232
City Treasurer, Jas. H. H. Hewett, 275
City Engineer, F. M. Knight, 273
Councilman, J. P. Hazard, 244
W. O. Barnes, 98
S. A. Franklin, 196

SECOND WARD.

Mayor, Louis Buechsenstein, 107
City Clerk, L. W. Bowman, 197
City Treasurer, Jas. H. H. Hewett, 258
City Engineer, F. M. Knight, 252
Councilman, J. P. Hazard, 235
L. F. Smith, 133
M. O. Joder, 155

The result in the councilmen contest was as much a surprise as that of the head of the ticket whereby the regular nominees met defeat in both wards. Messrs. Barnes and Smith are both popular citizens and it is quite a compliment for the victors, Messrs. Franklin and Joder, that they won out against such worthy opposition.

The school district contest was a tame affair compared to the municipal race. Both G. W. Clark and D. K. Spacht, the only candidates in the field, had clear sailing and the same was the case with C. C. Smith who was nominated to fill vacancy. The vote stood: Clark 413, Spacht 402, Smith 415.

The Revival Wave.

The special evangelistic meetings, which have been in progress at the First M. E. church during the last three weeks, closed April 5.

The pastor, Rev. Chas. W. Ray, was assisted by Rev. Dr. J. W. Mahood, preacher, and Rev. J. M. Tibbetts, gospel singer, both of Sioux City, Ia. Dr. Mahood is a very strong persuasive speaker. He surely is one of our most talented evangelists. He has a quiet, winning manner which causes people to forget about the speaker, as they become eager to drink in the truths presented. Rev. Tibbetts is an excellent chorus leader; in directing a chorus, he does so in such a pleasing way that he has the good will and help of each person.

Many have said that Alliance has never had such a deep spiritual revival as this one. The church has received a great uplift from the meetings. It is hardly possible to know the exact number of conversions and reconsecrations, but as far as known there were 175. On the last evening when the new converts were asked to speak first, it seemed that a host was turned loose. Pastors desiring a safe, trusty, spiritual and worthy evangelist can find none better than Dr. Mahood. After a short rest

Dr. Mahood and Tibbetts will begin a meeting at Trinity M. E. church at Grand Island, Neb.

The children of the U. P. church will give an entertainment at the church next Friday night. We have not been advised as to the nature of the program, but it is safe to predict that it will be of an interesting character and beneficial to the cause to which it is directed. It is a well known fact that the innocence of childhood draws more forcibly toward religion than anything else. The writer at once informed by an unusually successful minister that the secret of his success was the study of child life and its application in drawing adults to a realization of their duties regarding religion. The parents of many children were unconsciously drawn toward the church through this agency. He said that where he had an opportunity to mould the idea of the little one, teach it the beautiful lesson of the Christ child and touch the heart with sweet melody and hymns the result has been, in many instances, almost miraculous in leading parents toward the church who otherwise would be indifferent.

A GRAND SUCCESS

The Herald's Special Edition Is Mailed and Subscribers Marvel at Its Beauty.

T. J. O'Keefe returned today from Denver having been there since March 21, with the exception of one day, overseeing the work on the industrial edition of THE HERALD. The big job was completed yesterday and the Alliance list mailed today.

The Industrial Edition had been mailed but a short time when there was a great rush for the HERALD office for extra copies of the edition, thus proving at once that the merit of the work was appreciated without hesitation. Within an hour's time over 100 copies were sold and if this rate is kept up we fear that the edition will be exhausted before the demand is supplied.

Miss Mary O'Donnell left for Omaha last Monday night where she will pursue a course in shorthand and stenography.

Miss Florence Shirley, sister to Mrs. John Akers, left for her home at Minden via Denver, where she will visit friends.

Mrs. T. A. Colvin came down from Hemingford last Wednesday to witness the marriage of Miss Rosa Colvin to J. R. Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Christy were out-of-town attendants at the revival meetings held at the M. E. church in this city last week.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Catholic church met with Mrs. Ed O'Donnell last Wednesday afternoon and was well attended.

Otis Carithers, who has made his home in Alliance for some time, will leave soon for Nevada to represent a veterinary science association.

The Palace Livery stable proprietor, Mr. Desh, is building a cottage for his family's habitation, which will be both cozy and commodious.

Mrs. C. A. Gleason and daughter Maud departed last Sunday for Fairmont, this state, where they will in all probability reside permanently.

Thomas James returned Tuesday from Long Pine, where he was called by the sickness of his mother. She died shortly after his arrival at that place.

Visitors to the World's fair can secure rooms at Epworth hotel at $1.00 per day by applying to C. W. Ray before May 1. After this date rooms will be $2.00 per day.

Mrs. J. B. Miller, accompanied by her daughters, left Monday night for Le Mars, Iowa, where her parents reside, and will visit in that pleasant little city for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Steen entertained Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Dodge after the entertainment Tuesday night. An elaborate dinner was served to the private party at the Cafe.

Miss Leota Reeder has commenced a term of school in the Burke district, west of this city. She is a capable instructress and the scholars will receive proper training under her care.

Engineer McFall is entertaining his brother Will of St. Joe, who arrived last Sunday. He is employed in a packing plant at that place and recently sustained the injury of a hand.

Rev. W. N. Howie of the United Presbyterian parish is confined to the house with sickness which at times has been such a serious nature as to cause apprehension to his relatives and friends.

C. A. Newberry, J. W. Wehn and son, Herbert, spent Thursday in Denver, returning today.

Photographer C. R. Fuller went to Denver Wednesday to spend a few days.

HEAD-END COLLISION

Engineer Hamilton and Fireman Reeder Injured.

A head-end collision occurred yesterday morning between passenger train No. 44 and freight No. 47 between Mullen and Seneca in which Engineer Harry Hamilton and his fireman, Julius Roeder, both of this city, were injured, the former having an arm badly bruised and the latter was slightly scratched about the face. The injured men were in charge of the passenger engine and when they saw the impending danger, jumped.

Both engines were considerably damaged as a result of the encounter. The injured men were brought to this city the same day on 43 and taken to their homes. Traffic was somewhat delayed as a result of the collision and owing to the burning of a bridge near Grand Island necessitating the running of trains by way of Central City.

M. E. Church Notes.

The following services will be held at the church next Sunday: Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning subject: "Hold Fast and Keep Thy Crown." Evening subject: "The Call to a Sacred Mission." Sunday school 10 a. m. Class Meeting 12 noon. Junior League 2 p. m. Epworth League 6:30 p. m. Prayer meeting Thursday evening 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend.

All persons who desire to become members of the church may present themselves either next Sunday morning or evening.

The Epworth League will give a social reception next Friday evening at the church for all new converts. Everybody invited to attend.

The Ladies Aid society will meet with Mr. C. C. Smith next Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m. All members are urged to attend as this is also to be a farewell meeting in honor of Mrs. Geo. W. Young.

Public Sale.

The undersigned will sell at public sale 10 miles north of Alliance, on Friday, April 15, 1904, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m., the following described property:

Eighteen head of cattle, including one grade bull. Fresh cows and others coming in soon. Three head of horses. One Deering binder, one sulky hay rake, one sulky plow, one breaking plow, lumber wagon, hay rake, and other articles too numerous to mention.

Terms will be made known on date of sale.

H. FRAZIER, Proprietor.

The city council will meet Saturday night, when the newly elected officers will be installed. The citizens of Alliance will watch with interest the workings of the new government, which are to be carried on under a different code of morals than those pursued by the outgoing administration.

J. C. Berry of Antioch was in the city yesterday and made the office a pleasant call. Mr. Berry has just recently returned from southern Iowa, where he delivered a car of horses. He says he was glad to get back to western Nebraska, away from the almost unpassable mud and cold rains prevailing in the Hawkeye state.

A. W. Yale, who has been doing missionary work in Custer county under the direction of the Nebraska Baptist association, was a HERALD caller last Wednesday on his way to Wyoming, where he will assist in similar work. Mr. Yale saw a proof of our special edition and was greatly pleased with it, ordering a copy sent to a friend in the eastern part of this state.

H. P. Madsen, the well known shoemaker, took his departure last Sunday for the far west, presumably southern California, where he will find a permanent home in the land of sunshine and fragrant flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Muirhead are entertaining a daughter, born to them last Tuesday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Miller, at Hemingford, and the grandparents were as anxious to welcome the new born babe as the fond parents.

Some unknown parties, with appetites for oranges, broke into the basement of the Miller block and carried away a box of oranges belonging to the grocery firm of Watson & Watson last Tuesday night.

Invitations are out announcing the forthcoming nuptials of Royal V. Switzer to Miss Fauny Berry, which happy event will take place at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday, April 20, at Antioch.

J. R. Pierce and Miss Rosa Colvin of Hemingford were united in marriage in this city Wednesday morning by Judge Spacht. They will reside six miles northwest of Hemingford, where the groom has a comfortable home prepared for his bride.
